SATURDAY, APRIL 29

Carter Andrews:
The Obsession of Carter Andrews
Sat 9am-10am & 5pm-6pm

Renowned angler & guide Carter 'Big Boy' Andrews is plagued by a single obsession: fishing. He cannot remember a time when fishing was not the driving focus of his life. Growing up, he spent countless hours on local ponds with a spinning rig & bait-caster. With dreams of becoming a tournament bass angler, he would likely be on the bass circuit today had a fellow angler not put a fly rod in his hand. In short order, he had a fly-fishing resume that read like a Hall of Famer's: three wins of Jackson Hole One Fly, countless video & print references, a keystone spot on the US Fly Fishing Team... but it was a trip to the Bahamas that introduced him to the world of destination saltwater angling. For the next decade he helped build fishing lodges, train guides & lead exploratory fishing expeditions across the globe. Carter manages nearly 300 days of fishing annually & has earned the reputation of being the most 'complete' angler on the water today.

Dan Spengler:
The Science of Fishing Lures
Sat 10am-11am

Learn the fascinating science behind bait development followed by a tank demonstration to see the baits in action from industry expert, Dan Spengler. Dan has been seen on Discovery Channel, NBC & ABC news affiliates, Outdoor Channel, ESPN Radio & more! Dan leads the Berkley bait design team to develop bait at the state-of-the-art Berkley Labs in Spirit Lake, IA. He began fishing & creating lures early in his life & holds a Master's Degree in Fisheries from South Dakota State University.

Steve Rodger
Spear One Charters / Into the Blue
Sat 11am-12pm & 4pm-5pm

Steve Rodger knows the southern waters of the Florida Keys as well as anyone alive. As an expert diver, Steve brings a different perspective to fishing & is as comfortable under water as he is above the surface. From the plentiful wrecks to the reef, he has developed skills & techniques that consistently separate him from his competition. Steve is the owner of Spear One Charters & stars on the action-packed offshore fishing series, Into the Blue.

Capt Jerry Sparks:
Freshwater & Inshore Saltwater Light Tackle
Sat 12pm-1pm

IGFA Captain Jerry Sparks will discuss fresh & salt water fishing from boat & kayak, as well as tips to extend your season. Captain Sparks is endorsed by several manufacturers such as NRS, Scotty Manufacturing, ABOA, Werner Paddles, Yo-Zuri and Falcon Rods to name a few.

Tony Dubek:
The Ins & Outs of Maintaining Your Saltwater Gear
Sat 1pm-2pm

Tony has been with Pure Fishing for 18 years & currently manages both the Parts & Services Departments out of the PENN facility in Philadelphia. Tony's seminar will discuss how to properly maintain your rod & reel after fishing in saltwater with the goal of allowing your equipment to function like new for years to come. Following his seminar, Tony will be at the PENN table & available to answer any additional questions you might have about your gear!

Blake Longworth:
Dressing for Cold Water Paddling
Sat 1pm-2pm (In Paddlesports Dept)

Hypothermia is very real. New England water temperatures stay cool well into summer. Take some time to learn the best ways for paddlers of any level to stay safe when paddling in cold air & water temperatures.

SEABROS:
Fishing Adventures
Sat 2pm-3pm

Captains Bryan & Taylor Sears have been fishing the inshore & offshore waters of New England for over 25 years. They both attended Massachusetts Maritime Academy where they became USCG licensed captains as well as received degrees in Emergency Management & Facilities Engineering, respectively. They have captained & mated on many boats throughout the Northeast, but most of the Sears brothers' time is spent running their family owned/operated charter fleet, Mass Bay Guides, along with their father Capt. Greg Sears. They also have a podcast (SeaBros Fishing) where they interview some of the most experienced charter captains, mates, anglers & watermen from around the world. Come listen to the Sears Brothers talk about their fishing adventures!

Patrick Sébile
Catching Striped Bass & Bluefish with Artificial Lures
Sat 3pm-4pm

Patrick Sébile is an angler, designer, entrepreneur & author. He is also a proud dad of twins, Jade & Luke. Patrick holds 43 IGFA World Records & has caught 783 different fish species in 71 countries. He has also written & published 7 books & 800+ articles on fishing. His first trip to NE was in 2004 & he loves to come back often to catch striped bass & bluefish. Patrick will discuss catching striped bass & bluefish with artificial lures & share a great story or two on fishing around the globe.
